

CHARGES SENATORS SHIELD PROFITEERS

Harris Bill to Uncover Profit Taxes Passes Senate After Stormy Session.

Within ten minutes of adjournment yesterday, the Senate passed the Harris resolution calling upon the Secretary of the Treasury to furnish the Senate complete information on income and excess profits tax returns for the taxable year 1918 for all corporations.

The measure is designed to throw the spotlight on war profits and uncover the excess revenues exacted by price gougers.

The measure arrived in the House within three minutes of adjournment, and could not be voted upon. It therefore remains unfinished business on the calendar of next session.

Brings Tense Scene

The bill calls for information concerning capital stock, invested capital, net income, excess profits, percentage of total tax to net income, net income after deducting tax, percentage of income to invested capital, increase of rate of earnings for 1918 over 1917.

Passage of the measure was preceded by a tense scene in the Senate, when Senator Smoot, Republican, of Utah, made a point of order against the measure.

"You gave me no assurance that you would not object to this bill," now yet attempt to filibuster against it at almost the last moment or two session. I consider it not only discourteous, but extremely bad faith. I know there are many Senators in this chamber interested in protecting the profiteers from exposure," declared Senator Harris, Democrat, of Georgia, author of the resolution.

"The Senator from Georgia is a newcomer in this body," interjected Kenyon, Republican, of Iowa. "He will soon learn that courtesy and kindness do not pay here, but that he must fight without gloves for anything he wants."

Smoot Admits Promise

Smoot replied that when he agreed not to raise any objection he did not realize that carrying out provisions of the measure would entail an expenditure of $500,000. This, he said, caused him to change his mind. He disclaimed any intention of wishing to protect profiteers, and withdrew his objection.

The year 1919 was not included in the data asked for, as the Senate was informed that complete returns were not yet available.

Senator Harris charged that "some Senators" were interested in shielding the big profiteers.

PRIEST GIVES "SEANCE" TO EXPOSE MEDIUMS

Communicates With "Spirits" and Does Mind and Crystal Reading.

NEW YORK, June 6.—Members and guests of Fordham University alumni-nat sodality spent three shivery hours at their meeting here while Father Charles S. De Heredia, the Mexican priest, who has been giving "seances" throughout New England, exposed the tricks of the mediums, the ouija board and other implements of alleged contact with the spirit world.

"The ouija," said the little priest, "is nothing but the subconscious mind, working subconsciously upon the hands."

Father Heredia communicated with the "spirits" and then went about the audience and actually told some of them their secrets.

He did many other things in the way of mind-reading and crystal reading, even telling Alice Callagher the important question will be "popped" to her on the trip of Fordham followers to West Point for the big ball game with the army nine.

Sale Army Officers' Wrist WATCHES

For Washington and Vicinity

$4 Jeweled Adjusted Guaranteed

Price During the War, $15

Taking into consideration that there were more than fifty dealers after this lot of watches, much credit is due Mr. S. M. Selinger of this firm, for his untiring efforts in securing them, which number many and give to us the exclusive sale for Washington. During the war these rugged little timepieces could not be made fast enough to supply men going into service at $15 each. Mail orders will be filled if accompanied by remittance for any number until our stock is exhausted. Furthermore, the money (every cent of it) will be refunded if watches as good as these in any particular can be purchased elsewhere for less than $15.00.

These Watches have two advantages over all others; one, the darker the night the plainer you can see the time. The other is, every one will bear a man's weight without breaking the glass.

The higher grades will be sold as follows:
$25 Grade $6
$30 Grade $8
$35 Grade $10
$40 Grade $15
